Reasons for the Enactment

In order to mobilise the additional resources and to simplify the collection of the electricity duty levied on consumption of electricity from different categories of consumers in the State of Himachal Pradesh, it became necessary for the State Government to amend certain provisions of the Himachal Pradesh Electricity (Duty) Act, 1975. For this purpose, the Himachal Pradesh Electricity (Duty) (Second Amendment) Ordinance, 1992 (H.P. Ord. 2 of 1992) was promulgated by the Governor, Himachal Pradesh on the 3rd August, 1992. By virtue of the provisions contained in the said Ordinance, in the State of Himachal Pradesh, the rates of electricity duty have been revised as under:—

- (i) in case of domestic consumers at the rate of 5 paise per unit ; and
- (ii) in case of other category of consumers at the rate of 10 paise per unit.

2. A new section 11A has also been inserted to empower the State Government to accord exemption to any consumer or person from the payment of the whole or part of the electricity duty for such period and subject to such terms and conditions as may be prescribed. The insertion of this provision was considered necessary for giving relief to agricultural and like consumers. Before the said Ordinance could be replaced by a regular enactment the powers of the Legislature of the State of Himachal Pradesh to make laws has been declared by the Proclamation issued on 15th December, 1992 under article 356 of the Constitution to be exercisable by or under the authority of Parliament. As Parliament was not in session, the life of H.P. Ordinance 2 of 1992 was extended by the Himachal Pradesh Electricity (Duty) Amendment Ordinance, 1993 (15 of 1993) promulgated by the President on the 25th January, 1993. The said power has now been conferred by Parliament on the President under article 357 (i) (a) of the Constitution by enacting the Himachal Pradesh State Legislature (Delegation of Powers) Act, 1993.

3. Under the proviso to sub-section (2) of section 3 of the Himachal Pradesh State Legislature (Delegation of Powers) Act, 1993, the President shall, before enacting any President's Act, consult a Committee constituted for the purpose consisting of members of both the Houses of Parliament. The provisions of the aforesaid Ordinance will be expiring 4th April, 1993, on and it is necessary to replace that Ordinance by the President's Act before that date. As the said Committee has not so far been constituted and the matter is very urgent in nature and the time left is very short, it proposed to enact the measure without reference to the Committee.

Secy. to the Govt. of India,
Ministry of Power.
